

BASKETBALL. MADE MAJOR G. U. SPORT

Awards Made to Seven Players
After Executive Board Takes Action.

SEASON IS SUCCESSFUL

Team Composed of Young Players Who Will Return for Next Season.

Basketball has been made a major sport at Georgetown University. The executive board of the Georgetown University Athletic Association in session today at the Hilltop passed an amendment to the constitution putting basketball on a par with baseball, track, and football.

For the first time in the history of the game at Georgetown, seven players, including Manager Len J. Dillon, will be able to wear letters for basketball.

The season has been an unusually successful one. Coached by John O'Reilly and composed of practically untried material the Blue and Gray team came through with but one defeat in the city this season.

Aside from the number of victories, the year was successful financially. On the floor Georgetown defeated Fairland twice, George Washington twice, St. Joseph's, St. John's College, and lost to the Navy, St. John's, Seton Hall, and Trinity.

Awards were made to Rob O'Leary, captain; Frank Fees, Jim McNulty, Ed Cashin, Henry O'Boyle, Jim O'Boyle, Z. Keiffer, and Len Dillon. O'Leary is the only member of the team who has played three years.

Next year's team has an unusually bright outlook. Several players not awarded letters this season will be back next year.

PROS ARE COMING

Best Golfers Stop Here on Way
North From Florida.

The best professional golfers in the country, if not in the world at present, will stop here for a scheduled professional tournament April 3, at Columbia Country Club.

AUTO FOR EACH POLICEMAN

Chief Finds Officers Able to Do Much Better Work.

BERKELEY, Cal., March 18.—Every policeman in Berkeley now has an automobile which he uses on his beat.

Police Chief August Vollmer made this arrangement some time ago and has found after a period of experimentation that it works very well. The city pays $25 a month and furnishes gasoline and oil, while the policeman furnishes the machine. The machine carries a fire extinguisher, a first aid kit and an emergency ladder. All persons arrested in minor cases are carried to jail in the policeman's own car.

Chief Vollmer finds that the men are able to cover more miles per hour, that the policeman is able to reach a point much quicker, that he is able to investigate cases much better and that he is equipped to meet emergencies on his beat.

BLACK SEA FLEET BACKS REVOLUTION

Russ Naval Commander Announces Support of Provisional Government.

GENEVA, March 18.—The Russian Black Sea fleet has announced its support of the new Russian provisional government, according to dispatches received here tonight via Sofia.

LONDON, March 18.—England's interest tonight in the Russian revolution centered, first, in the changes presaged by it in the war and, second, its effect in Germany.

Of the developments which are still concealed in doubt tonight was what had become of the czar and his family. Petrograd dispatches did not reveal his whereabouts or his condition. Nor did they confirm reports here in London that the Czarvitch, who has been ill for several days with scarlet fever, had died. The whereabouts of the Czarina were not told.

One report received here via Sweden, said the new government had transferred the former royal family to one of the czar's palaces in Crimea, under special military guard.

ROMANOFF MYSTERY SOLVED

Massachusetts Man Reveals Real
Truth of Russian Abdication.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., March 18.—The mystery of what became of the head of the famous Romanoff family was solved at police headquarters today. A dilapidated, elderly person, carrying himself in regal style, with a beard and a mustache, admitted that he was Czar Nicholas.

"I am the czar. I have come to America to breed a feeling of patriotism. I am also Columbia, the Gen of the Ocean, Cleopatra, King George, and the ghost of Herbie Fischer."

The "czar" said: "What we need in this country is patriotism. Hurrah for the Stars and Stripes and down with King Alcohol! We shall all be kings before King Alcohol!"

SMUGGLE FOOD IN HORNS

Musicians Betrayed By Odor, Arrested at Frontier.

VEVEY, Switzerland, March 18.—One of the frontier guard posts was thrown into an uproar a few days ago when what has since been referred to as "the greatest smuggling scheme" practically betrayed itself to the officials. The members of the Mannheim Orchestra, returning to Germany after a tour of German Switzerland with Herr Richard Strauss, were the perpetrators.

Customs guards examining the baggage of the tourists noticed peculiar smells emanating from the various musical instruments carried by the party. Trombones exhaled the odor of sausage; tubas smelled like smoked meats and "cellos seemed to have exhaled their resinous odor for that of rare cheese.

No careful examination was needed to develop the fact that the musicians had stuffed their instruments with delicacies of every description. The food was confiscated and the tourists reprimanded.

HOTEL BURNS.

BOISE, Idaho, March 18.—Fire today badly damaged the Sherman house, fashionable family hotel here. One man is reported missing and a number suffered injury.

AMBULANCE CORPS ORGANIZED IN D. C.

Undergraduates of Georgetown,
Geo. Washington, and Catholic Universities Enrolled.

Undergraduates of Georgetown, George Washington, and Catholic Universities, at a mass meeting in the Willard Hotel yesterday, organized a District motor ambulance corps. About 600 college men were present. The roster of the company was filled.

Dr. Ryan Devereux, of Georgetown University Medical School, who has had ten years' experience as a United States army surgeon, is a leader in the movement. The meeting was called at his suggestion. His lieutenants are Dr. Scott Breckinridge, West Point and Georgetown Medical graduate; Dr. Alfred F. Hopkins, Georgetown Medical, and Dr. F. H. Hingman, George Washington University.

"This is distinctly a Washington body," said Dr. Devereux. "Healthy rivalry in scholarship, debating and sports is a desirable thing for the Capital's colleges, but when it comes to serving one's country all thoughts of rivalry should be banished."

"The corps is no place for molly-coddles. Its work is in the first line of communication between the firing line and the first aid station. It is a duty that gives a chance to display ability and perform a great humanitarian work. It is not merely one of trying to save life, but from the military point of view it is one of getting men in condition to return to the front."

ST. LOUIS, March 18.—Mrs. Dortha Berlin, twenty-seven years old, wife of Charles Berlin, a baker, attempted suicide by drinking carbolic acid on the steps of Christ Evangelical Church. Mrs. Berlin had been missing from home since last Friday and a search was being made for her by relatives and friends.

No trace was found until the East St. Louis police were notified of her attempted suicide. Mrs. Berlin was found unconscious on the steps by Father C. R. Henkel, pastor. She was taken to St. Vincent's Hospital, and is in a critical condition.

FEWER MOTOR LICENSES.
LONDON, March 18.—The number of automobile licenses issued in Great Britain and Ireland is only about half what it was before the war. In 1914 there were 237,000 registered motor vehicles of all kinds; the total for the following year was only 200,000, and for 1916, about 225,000.

DECLARES GUNMEN OPERATE TROLLEYS

Tax Reform Association Demands Municipal Control of Street Railways.

Women are daily insulted.
Thieves and gunmen run the street cars.

"The city is being robbed, and the safety of the people needlessly exposed."
Every patriotic citizen will resent the importation of ex-convicts to take the place of law-abiding workers.

These were statements by H. Martin Williams, head of the Tax Reform Association, which met in the Public Library last night and passed resolutions asking the Government to take over the street railways in the District.

Mr. Williams placed charges of "official disregard of public duty," "importation of thieves and ex-convicts," and "disregard for official authority" against the Washington Railway and Electric Company.

The resolution adopted by the association petitions the District Commissioners and Congress to take over and operate the street railway lines of the District, saying it is unsafe to leave them in the hands of officials who will permit "outsiders to take the pieces of law-abiding working men."

IT WILL PAY YOU to visit our new tailoring establishment. We are showing a full line of Spring and Summer novelties and conservative patterns for both young and old men.
